

I Joseph C. Gird of Alexandria being of sound and disposing mind do make this my last will and Testament as follows
That is to say I devise to my wife Eudocia the Tenement and lot on St. Asaph & Duke streets in which I now live together with the Tenement lying to the north of it and all other estate real or personal which I have or may be entitled to at this time of my decease I hold all my said estate of whatever description to my said wife her heirs & assigns as her & their absolute property And I constitute my said wife the sole Executrix of this my will requesting that no security may be required of her for her administration of my estate as the whole is devised & there are few debts to be paid out of it In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hands this 4th day of Decr 1819

Published declared and subscribed by the Testator as his last will and in our presence who in his presence & in the presence of each other have hereunto set our hands in attestation thereof

W. D. Simms

District of Columbia S^t.

Be it remembered that on this 16th day of December 1819 Before me Alexander Moore Register of Wills for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia personally appeared Robert S. Taylor and William D. Simms Witnesses to this last Will and Testament of Joseph C. Gird deceased and made oath upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God that the Testator acknowledged published and declared the same in their presence for his last will and Testament and at the time of so doing he was of sound and disposing mind that deponents subscribed their names thereto as Witnesses in the Testators presence at his request and in the presence of each other
