H. H. Moore, Clerk

I John Butcher of the Town of Alexandria in the District of Columbia do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. That is to say Infirmities It is my will and desire and I do order and direct that all my just debts be satisfied and paid

Whereas I am connected with William Paton in the hard ware Store in the Stock of which I may possibly hold more than he does at this time, in case it should turn out so, that perhaps whatever it may be I give and devise to my wife Ann to dispose of as she may judge proper in case she shall survive me. I am also concerned with Ezra Sinscy and Company in the tan yard and stock therein in which stock we includes all the Lotts and buildings & cth in the business of tanning. now I give and devise unto my said wife Ann during her life whatever profits may arise from my stock in the hard ware Store and in the tan yard, but if my Nephew Jonathan Butcher should incline to take immediately into his business that portion of those Stocks which I intend for him after the death of my wife then it is my will and desire and I do order and direct that so much of the Stock in the hard ware Store as shall be found equal to the stock which ^{William} Paton holds in that Store and my part of the Stock in the tan yard be valued by competent Judges which Stocks I give to my said Nephew Jonathan Butcher or his Executors Administrators immediately upon my death he paying unto my said wife during her life an Interest of four per Cent in quarters yearly ~~which~~ ^{which} accrues upon the amount of the valuation so made but if my said Nephew shall not incline to take the above described Stocks upon those terms then I give and devise the same unto my said wife Ann during her life and after her death I give and devise them unto my said Nephew Jonathan Butcher his Executors Administrators and Assigns

Item I give and devise unto my said wife Ann during her life all the rents arising from

from the several houses and Lots of ground of which I am seized the dividends on the shares I hold in the banks of Alexandria and Potomac and him I give and devise to my wife during her life the Lot of ground and houses where I now live and that Lot of ground I purchased from those empowered to sell the Estate of Thomas Kirkpatrick which Lots of ground and houses after the death of my wife I give and devise unto John Butcher son of Jonathan Butcher and his Heirs and assigns forever

Item after the death of my wife my Lot of ground standing on King Street and Clark Alley and the buildings thereupon made I give and devise unto my stepson Jonathan Butcher his Heirs and assigns forever

Item after the death of my wife I give and devise my part and proportion of those Lots of ground and the improvements which were purchased of Samuel Murray and Thomas Brocious on King Street and Clark Alley to John Butcher Paton his Heirs and assigns forever

Item after the death of my wife I give and devise unto Rebecca Paton wife of John Butcher Paton his Heirs and assigns forever that half acre of ground of which I am seized lying at the Corner of Wolfe and Patrick Streets and three shares in the Alexandria bank

Item after the death of my wife I give and devise unto John Butcher Gubbins his Executor and Administrators three shares in the bank of Alexandria

Item after the death of my wife I give and devise unto Ann M. Paton daughter of William Paton and to her Executors and Administrators four shares in the Bank of Potomac and my shares in the Little River and Fauquier Turnpike roads

Item after the death of my wife one of the shares I hold in the bank of Alexandria I give and devise for the use of ^{and being} Ann Long daughter of Hersh Long unto to be transferred to her by my Executor hereinafter named or the dividends arising therefrom paid her by them whichever they may judge most advisable

Item I give and devise unto Clayton Haynes my son on my wearing apparel and all my other and unlisted stuff

Item after the death of my wife I give and devise one share in the bank of Alexandria to Ann Butcher M. Wachen her Executors and Administrators

Item after the death of my wife I give and devise one share in the bank of Alexandria to Margaret Shirley her Executors and Administrators

Item any further Estate which I may possess which is not ^{already} hereditarily disposed of after the death of my wife I give and devise unto my wife to be disposed of as she may think proper

Lastly I nominate and appoint my wife Ann Butcher and John Jamney Jonathan Butcher and John Butcher Paton Executors of this my last Will and Testament and I do hereby revoke all former Wills by me made declaring this and no other to be my last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 24th day of April 1810
