The last Will and Testament of John T. Smith of the District of Columbia and County of Alexandria being sound in mind and perfect health calling to mind that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament as follows. That is to say
First my will is that if any just debts should be owing by me that they shall be paid. I owe none at this time to my collection and that next my funeral expenses to be paid. I own about forty four acres of land where I now live a two story brick house on princeps street in the town of Alexandria twenty three & a half feet front & ninety six feet seven inches in depth. A vacant lot of ground on Columbus Street 15 feet 7 inches front & 83 feet five inches in depth and an annuity on Washington street between princeps and Oronoke streets occupied by Thos Braddock the annuity of which is twenty two Dollars & fifty cents per annum which is all the real property I now possess.

Item 1. I give and bequeath to my son John T. Smith the vacant lot of ground above described on Columbus Street.

Item 2. I give the annuity on Washington Street to my daughter Rebecca Emeline occupied by Thos Braddock.

Item 3. I leave my beloved wife Martha Smith during her life time all the rest of my property both real and personal and after her death my will is that the same property real & personal shall be divided equally between my children namely Elizabeth Harriet Sidney - Rebecca Emeline - Ann Malvina - Helen Martha - John Robert & Pto - Eliza - Helen - Calven Andrew & Mary Francis - should I be blessed with any more children hereafter my will is that they shall be entitled to an equal division with the rest and in case of the death of any one or more their intended portion shall be equally divided with those that remain alive. I require no sale shall be made of my personal property unless it be necessary to pay any debts I may owe after my decease.
