and Theodore Skinner are held and firmly bound to George Gilpin Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the district of Columbia, and his successors in office in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his successors in office we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our Seals and dated the seventh day of April 1812.

The Condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Henry Payne Administrator of the Goods, Chattels of John Haynes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods chattels of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of him the said Henry Payne or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit unto the said Orphans Court, when he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, And such Goods chattels and credits do well and truly administer according to law, and further do make a just and true account of all his actings and doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said Goods chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon account of the said Administrator, the same being first examined and allowed by the Judge of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons, respectively as are entitled to the same by law, And if it shall hereafter appear that any last Will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proven in Court, and the executor or heirs obtain a Certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Henry Payne do in such case being required deliver and render up his letters of Administration,
