In the name of God Amen, I John Hodgkin of the town of Alexandria in the district of Columbia do hereby make my last will and testament in manner and form following.

Imprimis. I direct all my just debts and funeral charges to be fully satisfied and paid out of my Estate.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my dear wife Rachael Hodgekins all my household and kitchen furniture.

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Catharine a small negro girl named Charlotte.

Item, I give and bequeath to my Executrix herein after named, their Hig. Executrix and administrator, In Trust, for the use of my family, all my estate held in personae, with the exception of the above legacies to my wife and daughter, and also with the exception of my negroes, to be by them sold upon such terms and at such times as they may think best, so far as not conducive to the benefit of my Estate, and the proceeds thereof to be by them vested in such funds as they may think best for the mutual support and Education of my Children and the support of my wife. And I direct that my Negroes may at the discretion of my Executrix, be hired out or sold, and the proceeds thereof to be by them applied in the manner above directed, for the Education of my children and the support of my family until my youngest child arrives of age; when I direct the whole of my estate to be divided among my wife and children as the law directs in the case of intestates, first, paying my son John sixty dollars whilst I owe him.

Item, I appoint my friend Joseph Thomas a Guardian of my soul and body. And lastly I appoint my friend, Joseph Thomas, Richard Heightman, and Thomas Doolley Executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 2nd day of July 1811—Signed sealed published and pronounced by the said Testator in our presence to be his last will and testament
