

This is the last will and Testament of Alexander MacKenzie Johnstone, Merchant, now residing in Alexandria in the District of Columbia. I revoke all other wills heretofore made by me. I commit my body to the earth, and my spirit to God who gave it, humbly hoping for a happy immortality in another and infinitely better world, through the atonement and intercession of my heavenly redeemer Jesus Christ.

I dispossess of the worldly estate, which it has pleased God to give me in the following manner to wit: All my right, title and interest in the real estate (which remains undivided) of my deceased father, Dennis McCarty Johnstone, and all my personal property, I devise to my brothers Charles Pearson, Johnstone and John Denton Johnstone and my aunt Elizabeth MacKenzie, wife of my uncle Alexander MacKenzie, one third part to each, to them and their heirs forever; subject nevertheless to the payment of my just debts - and partitioning my proportion of the debt due to my uncle and late wife Anne Johnstone MacKenzie as ascertained by his settlement with the Probate Court of Alexandria County, delin. nominate and appoint the said Alexander MacKenzie, Charles Pearson and George G. Norton, to and to their heirs and assigns that no security shall be required of him having full confidence that he will act correctly.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at my last will and Testament this twenty eighth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine. Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named
