

Did you or not serve with him after and in the army of these United States of American Independence; and have you or not seen ~~and~~ known him at sundry periods since? If yea do you ~~not~~ or do you not doubt that he sustains and deserves the reputation of a disinterested honest and liberal man? I have personally known John Brown Cutting when he resided in Boston previous to the battle of Lexington and served with him in the revolutionary war to its termination, during which time he sustained and in my opinion received the Character of an honest liberal minded man, subsequently to the revolutionary war Mr. Cutting has generally been absent from the place of my residence and of course not within the sphere of my personal observation or intercourse - when we have occasionally met, I have received and considered him the same honorable man I ever knew him to be

I Margaret Hooff widow and relict of Lawrence Hooff late of the town of Alexandria deceased do make and ordain this to be my last will and Testament Whereof the said Lawrence Hooff died by his last Will and Testament devise unto me the said Margaret Hooff all his Estate both real and personal with power to dispose of the same at my death among his Children in such divisions as I might think proper therefore - I give and devise unto Lewis Hooff and John Hoof, sons of the said Lawrence Hoof by a former marriage the sum of five shillings Virginia currency each - Item I give and devise unto Catherine Elizabeth Donald wife of Alexander Elizabeth Donald and Barbara Pollitt wife of Michael Pollitt daughters of the said Lawrence Hoof also by a former marriage the sum of five shillings Virginia currency each - Item I give and devise unto Henry Darnen son of Elizabeth Darnen another daughter of the said Lawrence Hooff the sum of five shillings Virginia Currency - Item as to the Lots of ground in the town of Alexandria and the improvements thereon of which the said Lawrence Hoof died seized I dispose of in the following manner the said Lawrence having had a son and two daughters born to him by me who lived with him until they grew up and by their labour enabled him to improve that Lot without any aid or assistance from his other Children - It appears to me but just that they should enjoy the fruits of their own labour, but it not being possible to divide so small a piece of ground into three portions without rendering in a manner useless to each of the persons interested in it I do therefore order and direct my Executor herein after named as soon after my death as can be (in case such power be vested in me by the aforesaid Will) to sell the same for the highest price which can be got for it and the money arising therefrom I give and devise in the following manner that is to say I give and devise one third part thereof unto my son Lawrence Hooff to him his Executors and Administrators forever, one other third part thereof I direct my Executor to lay out to the best advantage in the purchase of a piece of ground and a small house either in town or country as to them shall seem most advisable for the use of my daughter Mary Doyle wife of Conrad Doyle during her natural life and after her death for her Children Margaret Henry Lawrence John & George their heirs and assigns forever as tenants in common to be equally divided among them. ~~but in case my authority under the aforesaid Will of the said Lawrence Hooff is not so extensive as to enable me to direct a sale of the said Lot of ground I direct to be put interest upon good security or laid out in ^{the purchase of} some other third part of the money arising from the sale of the said Lot of ground as to my ^{executors} shall appear most advisable, if the money be put to interest I direct the same to be paid in equal proportions unto George Elizabeth Lawrence and Peter Satzbaugh Children of my daughter Margaret Satzbaugh as they shall severally become of age but if my Executors shall deem it more advisable to lay that money out in the purchase of ground, I direct the purchase to be made in the name of the aforesaid Children their Heirs and Assigns but in case my authority under the aforesaid Will of the said Lawrence Hooff is not so extensive as to enable me to direct a sale of the said Lot of ground then I do give and devise one third of the said Lot of ground and all the improvements thereupon unto my said son Lawrence Hooff and to his Heirs and assigns forever one other third part of the said Lot of ground and the improvements thereupon I give and devise unto my daughter Mary Doyle wife of the said Conrad Doyle during her natural life, and after her death I give and devise that third part of the said Lot and improvements unto her Children Margaret Henry Lawrence John and George their heirs and assigns forever to be equally divided among them, and the other third part of the said Lot of ground and improvements I give and devise unto George Elizabeth Lawrence and Peter Satzbaugh Children of my daughter ^{Margaret} Satzbaugh to them their heirs and assigns forever to be equally divided among them Lastly, I nominate ordain constitute and appoint my son the said Lawrence Hooff and my friend Peter Wise executors of my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all former and~~ other wills by me heretofore made declaring this and no other to be my true last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this 22^d day of October 1793

Signed Sealed published and declared by the said Margaret Hooff to be her last Will and Testament in presence of a Justice being first made from the word (them) in the sixth line of the second page to the word (and) in the eighth line of the same page and the word (the same) and the word (it) in the first page witnessed In Her
