At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia the 20th day of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen

Present Robert Young Esquire Judge Alexander Moore Register

An Instrument of writing dated the 20th day of January 1814, in these words to wit: In the name of God Amen I Richard Cummings of the County of Alexandria and District of Columbia do hereby certify and confirm this as my last will and testament revoking all others. To wit: I Henry Spivey do bequeath to my faithful nurse John Phipps all my wearing apparel and furniture, to him and his heirs forever. I Henry Spivey do bequeath to the poor of the Town of Alexandria under the direction of the Common Council five hundred dollars to be by them applied in the way that they shall think most conducive to their benefit. I Henry Spivey do bequeath to my beloved friend Charles Matthews and Thomas Howard the residue of my Estate real and personal of whatever consisting or otherwise found to them and their heirs forever, trusting that they will give me a decent burial with a monument at Stone's Corner at my name together with my age and the time of my demise. Lastly I do hereby appoint my above named friends Charles Matthews and Thomas Howard sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament. Given under my hand and Seal this twentieth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen. Richard Cummings Seal
