

Knowall Men by these presents that We John M. Clark and Thomas Smith are held and firmly bound unto Robert Young Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of one hundred Dollars lawful money of the United States to the payment whereof null and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this Eighth day of July 1824.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John M. Clark as Guardian of Mary King shall faithfully account with the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the District of Columbia as directed by law for the management of the property and estate of the Orphan under his care and shall also deliver up the said property agreeably to the order of said Court or directions of law and shall in all respects discharge the duty of Guardian to the said Orphan according to law then the above obligation to be void else remain in full force and virtue in law

Sealed & Delivered
In Presence of
The Court

John M. Clark.
Thos Smith.

In the Name of God Amen I Mary Jamieson Widow of Andrew Jamieson late of Alexandria County deceased do make my last Will and Testament as follows to wit. To my son Robert Jamieson and his heirs forever I give devise and bequeath one moiety of my estate of every kind and description whatsoever. I also give unto my said son and his heirs forever the other moiety of my estate, In ^{trust} for the sole use and Benefit of my daughter Margaret Bennett Wife of Robert Bennett and her children free from the Control of her said husband or the claim of any Creditor he now has or may hereafter have or from or from the claim of any other person whatever. The said moiety of my estate to be sold and applied in such manner and at such time as my said son may deem most advantageous for my daughter. My said son or if my said son should not think it to the advantage of the Estate to sell the same then he is to use it at his discretion and apply the income to the uses above mentioned. Lastly I nominate constitute and appoint my said son Executor of this my last will and Testament and request that he may not give security as such. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this Twenty seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

Signed Sealed published and pronounced by the Testatrix to be her last Will and Testament in our presence who have at her request subscribed our Names in her presence as Witnesses thereto
James McKenzies
Robert Anderson

Mary Jamieson

At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia the 2^d day of August 1824, the last Will and Testament of Mary Jamieson deceased was proved in due form of law by James McKenzies and Robert Anderson Witnesses thereto and a record to be recorded

John Moore Esq.

Knowall Men by these presents that We Lewis Tucker and James Carroll are held and firmly bound unto Robert Young Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of one hundred Dollars lawful money of the United States to the payment whereof null and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this Ninth day of August 1824
The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Lewis Tucker as Guardian of Mary Ann Robinson shall faithfully account with the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the