The last will and Testament of William Harden of the County of Alexandria and district of Columbia, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory blessed healantly god, for the same do make this my last will and Testament after my first debts are paid, I give all the property I possess to my beloved wife Ann Elizabeth Harden, during her widowhood, or till my son Charles Wesley Harden and my daughter Mary Ann Harden arrives to lawful age, my will is that she be sole guardian for my children during her life, if she shall so long survive my wife decease and from and after her decease or second marriage, I appoint my trusty friend Robert Ball to act for them, he his heirs or assigns. Secondly, I will all my land, with the appurtenances and so to my Son Charles Wesley Harden, when he comes of age he and his heirs for ever, his paying his sister Mary Ann Harden two hundred dollars - I leave a house due from Naval Branchamp in Kentucky to me for two hundred and eighty five dollars out of that I wish fifty two dollars a piece paid to John Burrall and George Jackson Burrall, it being left with me for them the remainder to go towards educating my children &c. this I provise my will, as witness my hand and seal this 17th day of June 1828.

I John A. Summers of Alexandria County and district of Columbia do make and ordain this my last will and Testament and first I recommend my Soul to the mercy of God, desiring that he will for the sake of Jesus Christ my Redeemer, pardon and receive it to himself. and as I am owing some debts and also feeling anxious for the welfare of my wife and children and knowing that some of my property must be sold to pay those debts. Thereby authorize my wife who I shall name as the Executrix to this my will, to sell either my personal property or my land whereon I now live as she with the advice of her friends may think best, for that purpose. The balance I wish her to retain for the use of herself and support of our children during her life and after her death to be equally divided amongst all my children. To wit: Adeline Virginia John Wallace, Charles Augustine, Simon Lafayette, Abraham Henry and Ann Elizabeth to them and each of them and their heirs forever. It is my advice that no appraisement be made of my property during the life time of my wife and having full without giving security. I hereby name and appoint my beloved wife Susanna Summers the Executrix to this my last will and Testament, dated this Twenty-fifth day of September in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and twenty eight.
