I Pompey Pohna Harris of Alexandria in the District of Columbia being at this ^{time} weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs as I wish them to be when it shall please providence to call me from this World do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say. First I desire that my body may be decently buried and after my funeral expenses are paid it is my will and desire that my just debts be paid (if any there be against me) be first paid out of such money belonging to me.

may be in the hands of Edward Stabler for safe keeping and after these objects shall have been accomplished it is my Will and desire that ten Dollars of the residue of said money shall be given to my wife Lucy or her representatives - and in consideration that it was through the industry and frugality principally of my former wife Rose that I was enabled to lay up money it is my Will and desire that after the payment aforesaid the remainder of such money be it more or less shall be for the use of the daughter of said Rose Betty Sandford who not being free it shall be used for her benefit at the discretion of Edward Stabler in whose hands it now is

I now give and bequeath to my wife Lucy a cupboard Dress bed and bedding. I now leave my clothes & two chests to be divided at the discretion of my Executors between the Children of Betty Sandford my Stepdaughter before mentioned and my Nephew Saml. Keeler

I now give unto Betty Sandford above mentioned a large Black Walnut Table. I now All the rest of my personal property I give and bequeath to my wife Lucy

I now The House and lot which I now live in on Alfred Street I leave to my wife Lucy for her use and for and during the term of her natural life or Widowhood provided that she regularly pay up as it becomes due the annual rent of twenty Dollars for which the lot is bound to Mr. James Laurason provided also that if my Stepdaughter Betty Sandford aforesaid shall become free and want a place to dwell in or under any circumstances be reduced to want for a place to dwell in that she shall be entitled to the use of said house for that purpose she in that case paying one half of the ground rent as aforesaid. I now upon the death of my wife Lucy or whenever she shall ~~for~~ marry again or fail to pay up the ground rent as aforesaid then upon either of these events the said lot & House shall revert to my Nephew Saml. Keeler for his use forever provided nevertheless that then the said House and lot shall be bound for the payment of ten Dollars every year for the use of Betty Sandford my stepdaughter before mentioned. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint Edward Stabler and his son William Stabler to be sole executors of this my last Will and testament revoking and annulling all former Wills by me heretofore made ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last Will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty eight day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five
