I Robert W. Harrison of Alexandria being of sound and disposing mind do make this my last will and Testament that is to say;

I devise to Bryan Hampson, my esteemed friend and copartner in trade all my right title and interest in the property, debts profits and effects of the firm of Bryan Hampson & Company, and all other property, real and Personal to which I am in any manner entitled to hold to him as his absolute property to his only use, and I do constitute him the sole Executor of this my will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 17th Dec^r 1819

Subscribed published and sealed by the Testator as his last will and testament in our presence, who in his presence in presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names in attestation thereof the word will first interlined

Rob. W. Harrison

R. J. Taylor
Dwight Metcalf

District of Columbia

Be it remembered that on this 28th day of December 1819 before me Alexander Moore Register of Wills for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, came Robert J. Taylor and Dwight Metcalf the Witnesses to this last Will and Testament of Robert W. Harrison deceased, and made oath up the Holy Evangelists of all mighty God that the Testator signed published and declared the same in their presence to be his last will and testament and at the time of so doing he was of sound and disposing mind that deponents subscribed their names thereto as Witnesses, in the Testator's presence at his request and in the presence of each other.
