Remember that on the 20th day of April 1815, before me Alexander Moore Register of Wills for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, Came William Washington and Maria D Craik, and proved the last Will and Testament of Marianna Craik deceased, in due form of Law -
A Moore Reg. will

In the name of God Amen I Samuel Shreve of Alexandria County and District of Columbia being weak & infirm of body but in sound mind do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament revoking all others heretofore made by me.

First - I commit and yield my soul to God, who gave it and my body to be interred at the discretion of my sons.

Item - I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Shreve the house and Lot beginning rather Eastward of the Gate at the road so as to run a straight line to join the Peach orchard fence Eastward of the house and run as far as the corner of the Peach orchard fence & thence across by the back of the stable in a straight line from the corner of the Peach orchard fence Eastward of the house through the apple orchard down to the meadow fence & thence across the fence to the road, also five acres of woodland lying on the main road, one third of the Pork and Beef now laid on, likewise all the Poultry, one third of the wheat and rye, one chest, four chairs. It is my will and desire that my wife should hold the above mentioned property during her widowhood.

Item - I give unto my five grand children Mary Shreve, Robert Shreve, Samuel Shreve, Joshua Shreve, William Shreve, one hundred Dollars a piece to be paid unto them by my Executors as they arrive at the age of twenty one, my Debt to be paid, after which my will and desire is that my two sons Samuel Shreve & Benjamin Shreve should have all my Estate both real & personal, with the widow's part at her marriage or death, to be equally divided between them my two sons Samuel Shreve & Benjamin Shreve, to them their heirs forever & assigns forever. Lastly I hereby appoint my two sons Samuel Shreve & Benjamin Shreve as the Executors of this my last Will and Testament whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this seventh day of February 1815
