Browne of the City of Bath physician joint Executors of this my will as far and concerning all my Chattels and effects in England, and I give to each of them the said John Purnell and George Gavin Browne the sum of one hundred Guineas as an acknowledgment of the favour done me by them in taking on them the trouble of such Executorship. And Lastly I hereby order and direct that neither of them the said John Purnell and George Gavin Browne shall be responsible for the acts of receipts or defaults of the others of them in the performance of the Executorship here by referred in them nor for any loss or damage that may happen or arise in the performance of or any thing relating thereto, unless the same be occasioned by his or their gross or voluntary neglect or misconduct nor shall they or either of them or either of them be accountable for any more of my said effects than what shall actually come to his or their hands or possession respectively.
In Witness whereof I have to this my last will and Testament contained in six sheets of paper, named together to the first five sheets thereof set my hand and to this sixth and last sheet thereof my hand and seal the day and year first above written
