In the Name of God, Amen. I Thomas Braddocks, of the Town of Alexandria the District of Columbia, considering the uncertainty of his mortal life being of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament and do hereby revoke and annul all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.
I do give and bequeath unto my wife Rebecca Braddocks the house and lot situated on Cameron Street bounded as follows, to wit; beginning on Cameron Street forty six feet five inches to the eastward of Patrick Street and running northward parallel then to seventy five feet thence by a straight line parallel to Cameron Street twenty feet to with a low story frame house the above is subject to a ground rent of ten dollars per annum which is her property as long as she remains unmarried and during of her life and if she should marry or at her death it then belong to my son Robert Washington Braddocks and his heirs and all my household furniture she is to have the use of as long as she remains unmarried. The Cows that I may have if she wishes are to be for her use and at her marriage or at her death they are to be sold and the amount of money equally divided between my children viz; Emily, Louise, Robert and Thomas Braddocks.
My wife Rebecca is not in no wise to sell them nor make way with them during her life. I do bequeath to my son Robert W. Braddocks the property situated on Cameron and Patrick Street as follows beginning forty six feet five inches on Cameron Street westward to the corner of Patrick Street and thence northward seventy five feet with the improvements thereon consisting of three frame houses to him and his heirs one part of the north portion of the lot for the use of property united to my wife.

I do bequeath to my son Thomas Smith Braddocks that part of my property situated on Alfred Street beginning one hundred and fifteen feet south of Queen Street beginning at the south side of a fifteen foot alley thence running southwardly forty two feet seven inches to the top line thence eastwardly one hundred and ten feet five inches parallel with Queen Street to a twenty six feet alley thence running as mentioned above with the range of tenements situate on the alley to him and his heirs.

I do bequeath to my daughter Emeline Harman Braddocks my property situated on the west side of Alfred Street one hundred fifty six feet seven inches to the north of Cameron Street thence north on Alfred Street twenty feet thence west parallel with Cameron Street one hundred and twenty three feet five inches with the improvements thereon and also do bequeath to her that portion of my property situated on Washington Street bounded as follows. Beginning upon Washington Street ninety six feet seven inches to the northward of Princeps Street running thence northward with the said street and binding thence with twenty feet thence westwardly with a line parallel with Princeps Street one hundred and twenty three feet five inches with the improvements thereon, consisting of a frame house to her and her heirs as the token Alfred Street is subject to one half paid by me and the other part by Robert T. Taylor when Amelia arrives at age and gets her property in possession she is to be paid six dollars and fifty cents out of my son Robert's property, annually until the same is expired or if Amelia gets married the payment is to be stopped — and further as there is a ground rent on the property situated on Washington Street of twenty two dollars and fifty cents I do request that twenty dollars annually be paid out of my son Thomas's property to Amelia when she comes of age and in possession of her property and it is to cease when she gets married. These payments are not to commence until she arrives at age and are in possession of her property. I do bequeath to my daughter Lucia Carter Braddocks my property situated on Queen Street beginning ninety feet from the intersection of Queen and Fayette Streets and running southwardly one hundred feet to a fifteen foot alley thence with said thirty feet east thence north one hundred feet to Queen Street thence west thirty feet to the beginning with the improvements thereon consisting of one low story frame house on Queen Street and one two story frame on the alley to be hers and heirs in case of the decease of either of my children before they arrive at age their portions of real property is to be equally divided between the survivors or in case that neither of them should die without an heir (or child) their portions of property is to be quately divided between my surviving children. I do request that my wife be paid fifty dollars a year out of my estate for her support as long as she remains unmarried and fifty dollars a year for each of my children to educate and support them. The children I wish to remain under the care of their mother, and child money is to be paid quarterly out of my rents I wish my Executors to attend to the Education of my children the boys untill they arrive to the age of fifteen then I wish my executors to bind them to some useful and proper trade and the girls I wish them to be put to the millinery or mantua making business but I wish them to be kept regular at school until they are put to proper trades. I have pointed out to either of the boys being because to go to sea as it is no trade for them. The surplus of rents left from the support of my wife and children I wish to be placed at interest in some secure way, until the children come at age and then divided in the lawful manner between them that is in the judgment of my Executors. My carpenter's tools and stocks on hand in shop or elsewhere I wish to be sold and such things as my wife and family does not want and the money appropriated to the payment of my debts, if I should owe any, and one half to the immediate use of my family and the other part deposited at interest as above mentioned and if there should not be enough that sale to pay my just debts I wish them to be paid out of rents as they are collected, in allowing my family support until they are paid, then my rents are to be regulated as I have mentioned above. My Library of books I wish to be kept for the use of my children and what money I may have in my possession at my decease is to be put to interest in some secure manner by my executors if the sum exceeds one hundred dollars and equally divided when my children arrives at age, but if the sum is less than one hundred dollars it is to be applied to the use of my family as they may need it. Thereby constituted and appointed Hugh Smith and Edward Stabler executors of this my last will and request. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 16th day of July, 1826.
