Jos. H. Thompson

In the name of God, Amen, I Daniel McClean sugar refiner, of the Town of Alexandria & District of Columbia, calling to mind the frailty & uncertainty of human life, do hereby make this my last will & testament now while it pleases God to bestow upon me a sound & disposing mind & memory.

I first commit my body to the ground to be interred by the side of my dear departed wife, deeming & directing that my funeral may be conducted in a plain manner without parade or unnecessary expense. Above all I commend my soul to my Creator & His Deemer, depending on His infinite mercy through Jesus Christ our Lord for the pardon of all my sins & infirmities & for acceptance with him in the day of judgement.

As respects my worldly goods, it is my will and direction, that my property of every description, real, personal or mixed, should be sold whenever my executors & trustees herein after named shall think it advisable to sell, having regard to the probable future advance of the value of property. The proceeds of all the said property I give & bequeath to all my children, to be divided among them in equal proportion, subject however to the modifications & reservations that herein follow. Whereas my son Daniel is disabled by infirmity from active employment, I give & bequeath to him one fourth part more than any of the rest of my children. And whereas my son Samuel has already received advances of money for which he stands charged on my books, it is my will & direction that the amount thus charged shall be considered as part of his legacy & deducted from his share devised him as above in common with the rest. It is my will & direction that the sum of one hundred & twenty dollars be allowed, annually, for the comfortable support of my mother during her life, to those who have the charge of her, should they require this compensation. My pew in St. Paul's Church I give & bequeath to my two eldest daughters, to be held by them as long as they continue bona fide members of the congregation of said church, & in default thereof, to descend to the two next eldest upon the same conditions.

Whereas I purchased & paid for a lot of ground now occupied as a burial ground, the title of which is now in me, it is my will & direction, that, as soon as my estate is reimbursed for the balance due me on account of the said lot, my executors & trustees shall convey in full & sufficient title, the said lot to the minister & vestry of St. Paul's Church of Alexandria & their successors for the use of said church.

X I hereby appoint & constitute my truly & well beloved friends John Hoof Cashier of the Farmers Bank of Alexandria & Norman Fitzburgh & Jacob Douglass, grocers of the same place, trustees & Executrix to the provisions of this will. ~~It is my will & direction~~. And I hereby empower & authorise them to dispose of, sell convey & give full & sufficient title for & in any & all & every of my real estate, that they may dispose of & sell agreeably to the provisions of this will. It is my will & direction further, that the sums so obtained to my children as far as the assets in hand
