

Witnesses to this last will and Testament of William Cooper deceased and made oath according to law that the Testator acknowledged the same in their presence, to be his last will and Testament, that they subscribed their names thereto as witnesses, in the presence of the Testator at his request and in the presence of each other that he was of sound mind but incapable of writing his name in consequence of a fall which he received that terminated his life. And on the Second day of September in the year aforesaid Magnus J. Stirling, (called in the will Magnus Stirling) the Executor named in the said will qualified thereto and gave bond and security according to law. Whereupon letters Testamentary were granted him.

A. Moore
Reg. Will

Know all Men by these presents that we Magnus J. Stirling John Morgan and Joseph Caches are held and firmly bound unto Robert Young Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of Two thousand dollars lawful money of the United States to the payment whereof well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this Second day of September 1819.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden Magnus J. Stirling shall well and truly perform the office of Executor of William Cooper late of Alexandria County deceased according to law and shall in all respects discharge the duties of him required by law as Executor of aforesaid without any injury or damage to any person interested in the faithful performance of said office then the above obligation obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Sealed & Delivered
in presence of
A. Moore
Reg. Will,

M. J. Stirling
John Morgan
Joseph Caches

Know all Men by these presents that we Ann Bond and William Gullatt are held and firmly bound unto Robert Young Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of one hundred dollars lawful money of the United States to the payment whereof well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this Seventh day of September 1819.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden Ann Bond shall well and truly perform the office of Administratrix of William Bond late of Alexandria County deceased according to law and shall in all respects discharge the duties of her required by law as Administratrix of aforesaid without any injury or damage to any person interested in the faithful performance of said office then the above obligation shall cease else to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Sealed & Delivered
in presence of
A. Moore Reg.

Ann ^W Bond
Mark
William Gullatt