

120) the exertion. Question No. 1 by Edey presiding Magistrate for and in behalf of J. B. Cuning Defendant: (see his Letter herewith sent).

Did you attend on Sally Carter deposed from Child hood or only a few times after she grew up to the age of puberty? how many hours have you passed in her Society?

Answer I attended her in 1805 as I before mentioned and was several days at a time in her Company occasionally.

Quest. No. 2.

Did you attend Sally Carter as a physician any time in the month of October, 1807 or during the year 1807, or the year preceding?

Answer I did not.

Quest. No. 3 Whenever you did attend Sally Carter or at any other time was Sally Carter remarkable for sudden or frequent Laughter or was she unusually sad or violently angry?

Answer I did not observe any thing of the sort she ^{was} silent and grave.

Quest. 4. Do you mean by any word or expression in your present Deposition taken understood as swearing that Sally Carter was void of sound memory or disordered in other words absolutely silly or ^{highly} insane? ^{answer} My deposition fully expresses what I mean.

Question No. 5

An eminent Physician who saw Sally Carter in the Summer of the year 1807 & who at certain intervals attended Sally Carter from Childhood - Deposes "That she was in mind and body deeply hysterical as the term is commonly used and more over had frequent and alarming fits of anomalous spasms, approaching much more to the Chorea & chorea than to the other disorders of that class. That he saw her at the Rappahannock races in 1807 with other young Ladies seemingly prepared and fit to take all the diversions of the place and that he never entertained the slightest suspicion of her having any maniacal tendency

122) or disease? Is or is not this a correct statement of the case of the said Sally Carter? If nay in what material fact or circumstance of the same is your medical opinion repugnant to this opinion?

Answer as my attendance on Sally Carter was in 1805 what she was or did in 1807 I am ignorant - And further the Dependent saith not Richmond County Court

By virtue of a Commission from the Orphans Court of the County of Alexandria & District of Columbia duly directed and dated the 7th September 1811 I have taken the foregoing Deposition notice served

Given under my hand and the 20th day of November 1811.
