Reg. Wills.

I Robert Herbert of the Town of Alexandria do make this my Will and Testament, I constitute and appoint the Honble Bushrod Washington of Mount Vernon John A. Washington S. Bushrod & Washington Executors this my Will.

It is my Will and desire that particular attention be paid by my Executors to the Education of my children so that their impression may be of a proper kind I will not point out the course but will leave it to the discretion and judgement of my Executors in whom I strictly confide.

With respect to the distribution of my property I leave that to the Law the provisions of which are both equitable and reasonable.
I desire that my dear Wife be permitted if she desire it to remain in my present establishment if it is not her wish to her Executor the property of disposing of or retaining the furniture & Liquors and I hereby devise the said furniture and Liquors to her

It is my wish that all my just debts be paid by my Executors as soon as possible they are to be the Judges whether that or not.
I desire that my Executors pay to each of my Sisters the annual sum of one hundred Dollars and I desire my dear Sisters Elizabeth and Catherine to receive it during their lives as a testimony of my sincere affection for them.

I declare this to be my last Will and Testament all of which is written by myself and deliver it as such this Eleventh day of January Eighteen hundred & nineteen. My hand & seal
