Orphans Court, Alexandria County July 22nd 1806

Whereas John Duffy in the Month of July 1796, did take out Letters of Administration in the Corporation Court of Alexandria on the personal Estate of William Noble late of Alexandria deceased, and the said Administrator having never made any Settlement of his Administration during the sentence of this said Corporation Court, was cited by this Court to make said Settlement upon which Citation the said Administrator appeared this day and gives the following Statement relative to the said Deceased's Estate, to which he made Oath - That the said William Noble went into the lower part of Virginia sometime in the year 1795 on Business which he did, that his dependent administered as aforesaid and proceeded to where the said Noble died, for the purpose of taking possession of such Effects as he had left - upon enquiry the dependent found that what was left amounted to a very trifling Sum, not more than thirty or forty Dollars, and that he has paid away more than double that Sum, and that he hath never since received any of the Effects of the said deceased - And the said John Duffy also further made Oath that he did not Administer until about nine Months after the deceased's death, and then did it upon information that perhaps he had left something of Value, but upon enquiry it turned out as above stated
