

At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria the 5th day of June 1804. That last Will and Testament of Jacob Riesler deceased was further proved by the oath of Alexander Smith, and the same was ordered to be recorded.

Post Clerk Moore Register

At a Session of the Orphans Court for Alexandria County the 12th day of June 1804.

Alexander Smith one of the Executors named in the last Will and Testament of Jacob Riesler deceased, came into Court and renounced the Executanship according to Law in the following form:

I Alexander Smith one of the Executors appointed by the Will of Jacob Riesler late of the County of Alexandria deceased do hereby refuse to act as Executor to said Will by virtue of such appointment and do therefore renounce all my right, Title and claim to said Executanship accordingly.

Alex. Smith

Know all Men by these presents That we, Mary Riesler, Jacob Geiger, Forrest Richardson and George Coryell, are held and firmly bound unto George Gilpin Esq^r Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, and his Successors in Office in the sum of ten thousand Dollars, to the payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his Successors, we bind ourselves, our Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these Presents. Sealed without Seal and dated this 12th day of June 1804.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such, that if the above bound Mary Riesler Executrix of the last Will and Testament of Jacob Riesler deceased, do make or cause to be made or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said deceased which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Executrix, or into the hands & possession of any other person or persons for her; and the same so made, do exhibit unto the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria at such times as she shall be therunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other, the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said deceased, which at any time after shall come to the hands, possession of the said Executrix, or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her, do well and truly administer according to Law, and further do make and true account of her actions and deeds therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said last Will and Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits will thereby extend and the Law shall charge.

Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.
