To Patrick Byrne, Hugh Carolina, James M. Clark, & Thomas White, Greeting; This is to authorize you for any three of you jointly to appraise the goods chattels and personal estate of Alexander Salmer late of the County aforesaid deceased, as far as they shall come to your knowledge and sight as of your having taken the oath or affirmation prescribed by law, a certificate whereof you are to return annexed to an Inventory of the said goods chattels and personal estate, and in the said Inventory you are to set down in a column or columns opposite to each article the value thereof in dollars and cents. desired that my said executors or either of them should not be required to give security as executors to this my will, which has been written upon the six preceding pages at my request, and I do hereby declare the same to be my last will & testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this sixth day of February in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand eight hundred and seven.

At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the district of Columbia the 28th day of February 1807, this last will and Testament of William Crick deceased was proved in due form of law by Wm Herbert Junr, Abiel Holbrook and William Haddenburn witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

Test Cleon Moore Judge

Edmund Lee one of the executors named in the last will and testament of William Crick deceased, prayed that the Court would grant him Letters Testamentary without entering into bond with security, and this he claimed as a right by virtue of a clause in the said will wherein the Testator wished and desired that no security may be required of his executors or either of them. But it not appearing to the satisfaction of the Court (the executors having offered no evidence) that there was visible estate enough to pay the testators debts, and the Court having reason to doubt from its own knowledge whether the Testators personal estate was sufficient for that purpose security was required notwithstanding.

Whereupon the following bill of exception was filed.

Edmund Lee one of the executors of Wm Crick dec'd. } Upon application for Letters Testamentary

In this case Edmund Lee one of the persons named as one of the executors by William Crick in his last will and testament, having proved the said will offered to qualify as executor to the same. Whereupon the Judge of the Court required the said Edmund Lee to give security for the execution of the same, which the said Edmund Lee refused to do, because the said Testator had by his will directed, that neither of his executors should be required to give security. In consequence of the said Edmund Lee refusing to give security, the Court refused to grant him Letters Testamentary upon the said will; to which Edmund Lee excepts and prays that this his bill of exception may be signed sealed & allowed, which is done accordingly.
