A Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, the 19th day of July 1809, This additional account of Sales of the Personal Estate of,
James Russell deceased, was returned by the Executors, (and ordered to be recorded)

Test Alex^r Moore Rec^d

Know all Men by these presents, that we William M. Manning, and Edmund Jennings Lee, are held and firmly bound unto George Gilpin Esquire, Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria, in the District of Columbia, and his Successors in Office, in the sum of five hundred dollars, to which payment, well and truly to be made to the said Judge, and his Successors in office; we bind ourselves, our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents; — Sealed with our seals, and dated the 19th day of July 1809 — The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William M. Manning Administrator of all and singular, the Goods, Chattels and credits of John Catlett deceased, do make a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular, the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Administrator, or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same so made, do exhibit unto the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria, when thereto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and credits do well and truly administer according to Law; and further do make a just and true account of all his actings and doings therein when thereto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said Goods, Chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon account of the said Administrator; the same being first ascertained and allowed by the Judge of the said Court for the time being, shall deliver and pay, unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; And if it shall hereafter appear, that any last Will and Testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the probate thereof; and the said Administrator, do in such case being required by the Court, deliver up his Letters of Administration; then this Obligation to be void, else to remain in full force
