Know all Men by these presents, that we, Conway Whittle and James Patton are held and firmly bound unto George Giffin Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court for the county of Alexandria in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of ten thousand dollars, to the payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his successors in office we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 11th day of July 1808 -

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Conway Whittle executor of the last will and Testament of John Henry deceased, do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said Deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Conway Whittle or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same do submit unto the Orphans Court for the county of Alexandria when thereto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, chattels and credits and all other the goods, chattels and credits of 17 of the said Decedent, which at any time after shall come to the hands possession or knowledge of the said Conway Whittle or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his doings and things therein when shalts required by the said Court and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said last will and testament as far as the said goods chattels and Credits will thereto extend and the law shall charge - thus this obligation to be void and of none effect or else it remains in full force and virtue sealed and Delivered }
