Samuel Symonds of the Town of Alexandria, in the district of Columbia, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say,

Imprimis, It is my will and desire, and I do order, and direct that all my just debts and funeral charges be fully satisfied and paid.

Item, I give unto my wife Jane during her widowhood all my estates, both real and personal; and in case that she marry again, then I do give and devise unto her during her natural life full compensation and satisfaction of whatever in my estate, the lot dwelling house and improvements, whereon I now live upon Wolfe street and my house and kitchen furniture.

Item I give and devise my lot of ground with the Brick dwelling house and other Improvements thereon upon Royal Street unto my daughter Mary Ingle, during her natural life; and after her death, I give the same unto my grand daughter Eliza the daughter of Mary Ingle to her, and the heirs of her body forever.

Item I give and devise my lot of ground upon Royal Street, with the frame dwelling house and other Improvements upon it, also my lot of ground where I now live, after the death of my wife, with the Frame Buildings and Improvements on it, unto James Symonds and his heirs but in case he die without issue lawfully begotten, then I give the said Lots of ground, buildings and Improvements unto Joseph Symonds his heirs and assigns forever.

Item, I give and devise my lot of ground upon Fairfax Street, with the brick house and improvements thereon unto Joseph Symonds and his Heirs, but in case he shall die without issue of his body lawfully begotten, then I do give and devise the said lot of ground with the aforesaid Improvements, unto
