Mark Alexander was granted to, Elizabeth Alexander, she having given security in the following Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Elizabeth Alexander, John Mills Junior and William Newton, are held and firmly Bound to George Gilpin Esquire Judge of the orphans Court for the County of Alexandria, in the District of Columbia, and his Successors in office in the Sum of seven thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his Successors we and each of us our Executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents, Sealed with our Seals and dated this seventh day of December 1802.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above Bound Elizabeth Alexander, administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of Mark Alexander Deceased do make a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said Deceased which have or shall come to the hands possession or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Alexander, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her, and the same so made do exhibit unto the said Court when thereto required, and the same goods, chattels and credits do well and truly Administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true Account of all her doings and doings therein when thereto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon account of the said administration, the same being first Examined and allowed by the Judge of the said Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto each persons respectively as are entitled to the same by Law; and if it shall hereafter appear that any false bills and Inventories made by the Deceased and the same be proved in Court and the Executors obtain a Certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Administrators do in such case being required by the Court, deliver up her letters of administration then this obligation to be void else to remain in full force
