Know all Men by these presents that we John Smither and William Harper are held and firmly bound to George Gilpin Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, and his Successors in Office in the sum of one thousand Dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his Successors ^{in office}, we bind ourselves, our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents, Sealed with our Seals and dated the first day of May 1809.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such that if the above bound John Smither, Administrator of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Rebecca Greenway deceased do make a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Administrator, or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same so made do exhibit unto the Orphans Court of the said County when thereto required by the said Court.
And the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, do well and truly administer according to Law; and further do make a just and true account of all his actings and doings therein when thereto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon account of the said Administrator, the same being first examined and allowed by the Judge of the said Court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively as are entitled to the same by Law; And if it shall hereafter appear, that any last Will and Testament, was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court,
