 Rebecca Smith of Alexandria, being of sound mind but calling to recollection the uncertainty of human life do make the following distribution of my worldly effects;
 I give and bequeath to James Douglass, Jacob Douglass & Sarah Ellen Douglass, children of my Brother Jackson Douglass, one hundred pounds Sterling each, to be paid to them when of age by my Executor, to be employed in the mean time in the best manner for their advantage, & should any of the above Legatees die before they are of age it is my will that their share should revert to my Sister Margaret Bartlesman -
 I give and bequeath to my niece Rebecca Edwards two hundred pounds Sterling to be remitted to her uncle James Douglass, & put to Interest until she is of age & this to be done by the first safe conveyance -
 I give & bequeath to my sister Margaret Bartlesman all the residue of my Estate of whatever kind, and to her heirs, but in the event of her dying without having any children I desire it may revert to my next nearest relations, to be equally divided among them & should the Children of the said Margaret Bartlesman die without Issue, I desire in that case it should also revert in the manner before expressed - I do further constitute & appoint, Hugh Smith Mch^t of Alexandria my sole Executor of this my last Will & Testament -
