

21 Know all Men by these presents that we Joseph Thomas and Richard Waightman are held and firmly bound unto George Gilpin Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to the said Judge and his successors in office, we bind ourselves or His Executors and Administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals and dated this 25 day of May 1810.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that, Whereas on the fourth day of June 1807, On the application of Septimus Loring one of the Representatives of Mary Weston dec'd the Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria, ordered ~ Alexander Moore the Register of Wills for the said County to take possession of and safely keep all the personal estate of the said decedent, until administration thereof should be granted if the same should be necessary. And whereas by a subsequent order of the said Court notice was given to the Representatives of the decedent to take possession of the said estate, which they all refused to do. Whereupon the Court ordered the said estate to be publicly sold by the Marshal of the District of Columbia conformable to law, which sale was to have been made on this day. Now if the said Joseph Thomas shall and well save harmless and indemnify the said Judge and all others who have been concerned with the said estate in consequence of the same being surrendered unto him the said Joseph Thomas, and shall also pay and satisfy all the expenses which have occurred upon the said estate then this obligation to be void else to remain in full force.
