At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia the 8th day of December 1807 This account of Samuel Allen's estate was returned by the administrator and ordered to be recorded. Test, Alex^r Moore Reg^r

This is the last Will and Testament of me Robert Milligan at present residing in the Town of Wilmington in the State of Delaware, made the seventeenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six. Considering that it will be for the benefit of my children that the property which they are to enjoy upon my decease, as well that which they are entitled to claim in right of their mother my late wife as that which they would claim under me, should be divided as one and not as separate estates it is my intention to make the same distribution of the two estates as I should have done had they been one, in order to avoid the prejudice to the property which would arise from separate divisions of the two Estates — I therefore give and devise to my son George Baldwin Milligan, all my lands and Tenements

Goods and chattels comprehending all my property real and personal, situate lying and being in the State of Maryland to hold to him and to his heirs and assigns. Item I give and bequeath to my son George, three thousand pounds, money of the State of Delaware, chargeable on the lands hereafter devised to my son John, but upon another part of my estate. Item I give and devise to my son John James Milligan all that plantation or tract of land, called the Hook, which lately belonged to Cantwell Jones deceased, and which I bought at Sheriffs sale, situate in the fourth hundred, New Castle County, containing of upland and marsh two thousand three hundred and sixty acres more or less, to hold to my said son John his heirs and assigns, subject nevertheless and chargeable with the payment of the said said sum of three thousand pounds to my son George and interest upon the same at the rate of three percent from my decease till the time my said son George attains his age of twenty one years, and at the rate of six percent afterwards till the principal sum be paid but it is my will and intention that the said Tract of land shall be exonerated or otherwise indemnified from or against all other charges and incumbrances otherwise than rateably with my whole estate on account of any debts due from me for which the same is liable. And Whereas I am not informed whether
