 and deed and it was ordered to be recorded J. M. Moore Esq.

Samuel Craig of Alexandria in the District of Columbia declare this my last will and Testament revoking and annulling all others by me at any time heretofore made.
 It is my will that all my just debts be fully satisfied and paid first which I first do hereby charge them on my estate real and personal and do authorize my Executors to make sale of the same or of so much as they may deem necessary for the satisfaction of my said debts.
 I direct the whole of my estate so as to the payment of my debts and to the power of sale so vested in my executors to my beloved wife Joanna and my niece Mary Grace Craig Tall, in manner following that to wit, we had to my said wife Joanna to hold during her life and the other half to my said niece and her heirs forever to whom I also devise in the same manner the half so given to my wife to take effect in possession on the death of my said wife, willing however, the over and above estate so devised to my said niece to be considered as a vested estate in her immediately on my decease.
 Provided always that if my said niece should die without leaving any child or children or descendant or descendants of such child or children, living at the time of her death. It is my will that all the estate to her and her heirs hereby given shall cease and determine and that the moiety or half hereby devised to her to take effect in possession on my death, shall be and remain to my said wife if she survive my said niece to hold during the life of my said wife. And if my wife should not survive my niece, and my niece should die without leaving any child or children or descendant or descendants of such child or children living at the time of her death. I do then devise the whole of my estate Subject

subject to the payment of my debts and the power of sale as-
-said to my brother John Craig now of Auburn in the King-dom of Ireland and his heirs forever. And if by the death of my niece without children as aforesaid during the life of my wife the whole of my estate should vest in her, I do then devise the same on her death to my said brother and his heirs forever, - subject to my said debts and the power of sale as aforesaid.

And I do hereby constitute and ap-point, my beloved wife Hannah, executrix and my friends John Dinslow, Thomas Swin, and Bryan Humphreys, Executors of this my will, willing that a majority of those who shall take on themselves the execution of this my will or of the survivors of them shall have full power and authority to make sales and conveyances of my property and to do all other necessary acts.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of May 1806

Witness my hand and seal as last said in pursuance whereof in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto set our names in attestation thereof the words of one such
