Testament of Moses Seal deceased was proved by the witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. And letters testamentary were granted to them as W. Hewitt the Exec<sup>t</sup> thereof named.

Letter - A. Moore Reg' wills.

Know all men by these presents that we Thomas W.
Hewitt and William Washington are held and firmly bound unto Christopher Hale Esq<sup>t</sup> Judge of the Orphans' Court of Alexandria County in the district of Columbia, and his successors in office, in the sum of five hundred dollars to the payment whereof well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 9th day of August 1828.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such that if the above bounden Thos. W. Hewitt shall well and truly perform the office of Executor of Moses Seal deceased according to law, then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue in law.

I John A. Sommers of Alexandria County and district of Columbia do make and ordain this my last will and Testament and first recommend my soul to the mercy of God hoping that he will for the sake of Jesus Christ my Redeemer, purify and receive it to himself. and as I am owing some debts and also feeling anxious for the welfare of my wife and children, and knowing that some of my property must be sold to pay those debts. Thereby authorize my wife who I shall name as the Executrix to this my will, to sell either my personal property or my land wherein I now live, at the will & the advice of her friends may think best, for what purpose she shall wish her to retain for the use of herself and support of our children during her life, and after her death to be equally divided amongst all my children. To wit: Adelene Virginia John Wallace, Charles Augustus Simon Lafayette, Adela and Henry and Ann Elizabeth Baggett to them and each of them, and their heirs forever. It is my will that no apportionment be made of my property, during the life time of my wife, and having full without giving security. Herby name and appoint my beloved wife Susanna Sommers, the Executrix to this my last will and Testament, and as I die Socity, fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty eight.

Reg' wills.

Know all men by these presents that I Susanna Sommers am held and firmly bound unto Christopher Hale Esq<sup>t</sup> Judge of the Orphans' Court of Alexandria County in the district of Columbia, and his successors in office, in the sum of four thousand dollars to the payment whereof well and truly to be made we bind myself, my heirs Executors and Administrators, firmly by these presents sealed with my seal, and dated this 31st day of October 1828.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such that if the above bounden Susanna Sommers shall well and truly perform the office of Executrix of John A. Sommers exec<sup>t</sup> according to law, then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force.

Sealed and delivered in presence of the Court.

A. Moore, Reg' wills.

I Samuel Baggett being in the possession of my senses do declare this to be my last will and Testament which is as follows. I will that my wife Elizabeth Baggett and myself should take the charge of all my real and personal estate for the common use and benefit of my wife and our children, and that no division shall take place of any part of my estate until my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one. It is my will that my wife to-gather with Joseph Keitt shall use their best means to liquidate any claims which may be upon any part of my property from the common stock, available when a division of property takes place, with the different items of property specified in a former will to be disposed of as there mentioned if possible. To leave my gold watch to my wife Elizabeth Baggett. In case she marry before my youngest child comes of age, I require Joseph Keitt, or whom he shall appoint to see the foregoing will complied with, that is, that no division should take place of the property, but some person be appointed to the management thereof as aforesaid.

This I do declare to be my last will and Testament, to which I have set my hand and seal this eight day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

Eliz. E. Baggett.

With the foregoing will I am perfectly satisfied

Elizabeth Baggett.
