

Nephew Thomas Conway, son of my Brother Robert Conway business and assigns forever, subject to the conditions of the lease as is that devised to my brother Joseph. And all the said bequests I make to my Nephews and brother over and above their proportion of the rest of my Estate, which I direct my Executors to pay to them as devised after and out of the sales - I give to my nephew Chaplin Conway, Messrs Geographical Grammar, and Chambers Dictionary with the appendix, and all the rest of my books and library I give to my Brother Joseph Conway I give and bequeath to Margaret Ashton my negro woman and her child with their future increase. And I direct the rest of my estate not contained in these Articles to be devised and given as directed by my said Will. And I do emancipate and set free my Negro Woman Zilla - In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Twentieth day of November 1806 -
