Edmund Jennings Lee one of the Executors named and appointed in the last will and testament of William Carl, deceased, produced an inventory of the personal estate of the said deceased, lying in the County of Alexandria, and a list of all the debts owing by the testator, in the said County to the knowledge of the said Executor, and thereupon moved the Court to grant him letters testamentary, without being compelled to give security as directed by the Testator in his said will, which the Court refused to grant, because the documents produced were not in the Court's opinion, sufficient evidence to justify the granting letters testamentary. An appeal was then prayed and granted by the said Edmund Jennings Lee, and granted to the United States Circuit Court of the District of Columbia for the County of Alexandria.
