I George Carson of this County of Alleghany and State of Virginia do make and publish this as and for my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring null and void all other Wills by me heretofore made, as follows. viz
My will and desire is that my farm be divided by Commissioners hereinafter named into three parts as nearly equal in value as can be and I give to my son John A. the upper end of said farm on which he now resides. To my children by my present wife I give that portion upon which my dwelling house and other improvements stand and to my son Henry P I give the lower end of said farm. My will and desire is that my wife shall have her support off of that portion of the farm devised to her children while she remains my widow but no longer. To my son John A, I give my deer mare "Jan" and my new saddle and bridle and require him to pay to my present wife's children fifty dollars and fifteen dollars to my son Henry P. This amount of seventeen dollars to be paid to Henry P is intended as part payment of the sum of thirty six dollars which I owe him of borrowed money. I require him to pay to my present wife's children the sum of fifty dollars deducted therefrom the sum of nineteen dollars which amount of nineteen dollars is intended to complete the payment of the thirty six dollars that I borrowed from Henry. To my wife and her children I give my deer Horse "Tom" and my deer Colt "Pigeon". To my wife and her children and my son Henry P. I give 16 head of Hogs to be divided between them as they see proper. To my wife and her children I give two pairs plow gear. To my sons Geo. A. and Henry P. I give my Threshing Machine, Wagon and harness and all my farming utensils. To my wife and her children and her son Henry P. I give my sheep. To my wife and her children I give two milk cows. To my son Henry P. I give one Cow and calf. I desire that all my young cattle be sold and the money divided equally between my wife and her children and my sons John & Henry. To my son Henry P. I give one bed & bedding. To my wife and her children I give all my other beds and bedding and all my House hold and kitchen furniture. To my sons John A & Henry P. I give my Cross cut saw. To my wife and her children I give my Deer Saddle. I desire all my Cash bonds to be
