Andrew Runow of the County of Alleghany and State of Virginia, do make and publish this, and for my last will and Testament, in manner and form following, viz: 1st I will and devise to my wife Ann, that portion of my lands known as the "Home place", lying East of Jackson River, together with the Mansion House and buildings appurtenant, for and during her natural life, and her death to my Son Archibald and his heirs, by the said Archibald paying to my Son Thomas, within one year after the death of my wife, the sum of Two hundred dollars.
 2nd The residue of my lands known as the "Home place" lying West of Jackson River, I give and devise to my Son James C and his heirs, by the said James C paying to the Children of my Son George, or their Guardians, within two years after my death the sum of Two hundred dollars. This devise my Son James C. takes subject to the following rights of my wife and Son Archibald, to wit: The right of my wife during her life, and of my Son Archibald, to take wood off the face of the Mountain (the East face of the Mountain & opposite the Lands devised Archibald, for the support of the 3rd I give & devise to my Son William (if living) the following lands to wit: The lands known as the Cotton Hollow, Cherry Mountain and a tract of 63 acres in the Valley back of the Major Lands. And if my Son William is not heard of within one year after my death, my Executors are hereby empowered to sell the said Lands, and to divide equally the proceeds thereof among my Children. My Son George's Children taking the one share, that their father would, if living.
 4th I give & bequeath to my wife, all my House-hold & Kitchen Furniture, of every kind & description whatever.
 5th I give and bequeath to my wife, all my Slaves, for and during her natural life, and at her death, I give and bequeath my servant Charles, to my Daughter Margaret, and my servant Spencer to my Son Archibald, by the said Archibald, paying to my Son Samuel the sum of Three hundred dollars. And my old Slaves, I give & bequeath to my Sons Samuel and Archibald, in order that they (if living at the death of my wife) may be supported by said Sons who receive the "Home place".
 6th The residue of my personal Estate, not herein devised, I direct my Executors to sell and divide of my just debts, I direct the same to be equally divided among my Children, and my Son George's Children (they taking one share
