I Elizabeth Neely of the County of Alleghany, and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

1851. After my just debts and funeral expenses shall be fully paid, I will and bequeath to my Grand Son, John H Miller, Son of my Son Henry Miller, by his just Wife all my real and personal Estate, (that is to say, as to my Curried Estate) He the said John H Miller is not to sell for seven years after my death, and then provided he should have any lawful heirs or heirs, it to remain to during his natural life term, and to descend to his lawful heir or heirs.

2^d I hereby appoint Nathaniel W. Roney Executor of this my last Will and testament. In Testimony whereof, I have set my hand and seal, affixed my seal, this 11th day of March 1853.

And. Judge Clerk

Alexander Brown, Louis June June 1832

The Last Will & Testament of Elizabeth Steady ad. was produced to the Court, and further proved by the oath of Nathaniel McCurney, one of the subscribing Witnesses thereto, and the same is ordered to be recorded. Thereupon Nathaniel McCurney, the Executor named in the said Will, refuses to take upon himself the burden of the execution thereof. Thereupon John Miller, who made oath thereto, and entered into bond with James M. McCaughey his security, in the penalty of Five Conditions as the law directs, Certificates, is granted him to obtain a probat of said Will in due form.
