

I Marthas Judge of the County of Alleghany and State of Pa do make this my last Will and Testament.

It is my will and desire that my Executors shall and their Heirs that may be against me shall be just paid.

I Will and bequeath to my niece M. E. Judge, Daughter of my Brother Andrew Judge my bed. My bed Clothing Trunks including my Clothing or any other articles of that kind, I wish to be divided among my surviving sisters as they may agree. I Will to my sister Maria Morton one half of my interest in my Marthas estate to be paid to her by the Executor as soon as a settlement of said estate is effected.

The Residue of said interest, or half, I wish divided equally between my other three surviving sisters viz. Nancy, Mary & Elizabeth I hereby appoint and constitute my Brother Andrew Judge my Executor of this my last Will and Testament. Given under my hand and seal this 18th July 1837.

Martha Judge
Geo. H. Payne
William Savage

Martha Judge

Alleghany County Court August Term 1837.

An instrument of Writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Martha Judge dec'd. was this day produced to the Court for probate, and was proved by the oath of George H.
Payne & William Savage subscribing witnesses thereto, and the same is ordered to be recorded. Whereupon Andrew Judge the Executor named in the said Will, here in Court refused to take upon himself the burden of the execution thereof in favor of William & Morton, whereupon the said William & Morton who made oath thereto, and with Andrew Judge & George H.
Payne his securities, entered into bond in the penalty of $1000-Conditioned as the law directs. Whereupon Letters of Administration with the will aforesaid annexed is granted the said William & Morton in due form.

Order. Du. app. etc.

In the name of God. Amen. I Henry Smith of the County of Alleghany Pa and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking my all former Wills by me heretofore made.
First. It is my Will and desire that my body be decently buried, at or near the Grove Church, and my Executors herein after named, are hereby authorized to pay out of my personal estate, the sum of fifty dollars to aid in enclosing a grave yard, at said Church, when a sufficient sum shall be otherwise raised for that purpose, including said Fifty Dollars.

Second. - It is my Will and desire that all my just debts be paid by my Executors, as soon as practicable, after my decease.

Third. - I give and bequeath to my wife Fannie during her natural life the plantation on which I now reside, to be bounded by Mill Creek at its mouth, from thence to the brow of the Hill on the east side of the Creek, so as to include the Carding House Log Cabin, peach orchard and saw mill field (but no other land east of the Creek, except the peach orchard and saw mill field) together with all its appurtenances, except the mill and Carding House. Also one half of the Hay raised on my Douglas tract.

I do hereby appoint David Williamson executor of this my last Will and Testament, and the balance of my estate, except a survey of 33 acres on the Red Hill, are to be held and enjoyed by Andrew Williamson and Fannie his wife, during the natural life of my wife, free from rent, except paying to my wife during her life, annually one half of the Hay as above directed. And after the death of my wife the said Andrew Williamson and Fannie his wife are to hold the possession of and enjoy the use of all my lands (except said 33 acres), during their natural lives, and after the death of each of them, I Will and bequeath the same to my Nephew David Williamson, to him and his heirs forever, upon his paying to his five sisters one hundred dollars each month. I Will and bequeath to William Richie my survey of land on the Red Hill, containing thirty three acres, to him and his heirs forever.

Fifth. - I give and bequeath to my wife, for and during her natural life, the following Slaves to wit: Mary, Sally, Fannie, John and Sandy. And all my Slaves except those above named, I wish kind and by my Executors, during the life of my wife, and then here arising therefrom, to be annually, equally divided between my wife and Andrew Williamson, to them and their heirs forever, and I hereby give my Executors full power and authority, to use as many in the management of my Slaves, wishing as far as possible comfort, either by promising them to Christ, or by promising them to the Lord.

and Children, as my in their Judgment seem right. And at the death of my Wife, if my servant Mary should desire it, I hereby emancipate her, if not, then she is to be disposed of with the other Slaves.

Sixth. It is my Will and desire, that my Wife and Andrew Williamson jointly hold and use and occupy during my Wife's life, my Mills Carding Machine, Cornust millstones, Wagon, Black Smith Tools, and all other Tools of trade and my books, for the use of both families.

Seventh. I give and bequeath to my Wife, for and during her natural life, One half of my House, she to have, first, Chick and fowls, Hens, and so on until all are divided, Six Malo L Cows with their Calves (should they have any) of her selection, all my Stock of Hogs, all my House hold and Kitchen furniture except one feather Bed and furniture for my Sister Jane Williamson, One half of my Farming utensils, and all the grow of every kind that may be on the farm in my possession at my death.

Eighth. It is my Will and desire, that the joint after my decease, my executors make sale, either privately or publicly, as they may think best of my whole Stock of cattle, except the six for my Wife and for Mr Williamson, the proceeds of which together with any debts due for the payment of my personal expenses shall be and are directed to be taken therefrom, sufficient to make the deposit in Lynchburg.

One thousand dollars, which sum of $1000. or deposit is not to be collected until my Wife's death, and the balance of said fund (if any) to be equally divided between my Wife and Andrew Williamson to them and their heirs forever. (Also the interest on said deposit of $1000. to be annually collected and equally divided between my Wife and Andrew Williamson, to them and their heirs forever.

Ninth. It is my Will and desire that Andrew Williamson take the possession of the balance of my personal property of every description not before disposed in this Will, and use and enjoy the same during the life of my Wife, upon the land, the possession of which is devised to him, but it is distinctly to be understood that the personal property herein before devised to my Wife and Andrew Williamson, both separately and jointly, is to be prudently used by them upon the farms devised to them for the support and comfort of their families, during the natural life of my Wife and at her death, to be returned to my executors, to be disposed of as herein after directed.

Tenth. It is my Will and desire, that at the death of my Wife, all my personal estate of every description, together with my Slaves, be sold, my Executors using the same in settling my estate, or publicly or privately, as they may think right, and the amount arising from such sale, together with the thousand dollars deposited in Lynchburg as aforesaid, to be equally divided between the six Children of my Sister Jane Williamson (or their Survivors) and William Richie, allowing the said William Richie two eighths of the whole amount, in Consideration of his Brother George, who will be under his protection, which two eighths is to be his entire interest. Eleventh. It is my Will and desire, that if my Wife Caroline, will authenticate information, that any of her relatives are living, that five hundred dollars out of the fund to be divided between my Joseph and Nieces shall be at her disposal, to devise to such relatives, but to no other person or persons, and my Executors are hereby authorized to pay such devise if made upon good authority of relation ship.

I hereby make Constitute and appoint my Brother in law, Andrew Williamson and my friends Andrew Dawson executors of this my last Will and Testament in Fulfilling thereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal, this 15th day of December 1849.

Signed, Sealed & acknowledged, in the presence of the undersigned at the County of Albemarle, State of Virginia, the presence of the Testator.
