

I, James Robinson of the County of Alleghany in the State of Virginia being in feeble health but of sound mind and disposing memory deem this a proper time to make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking & declaring null and void all other Wills by me made.

In the first place I will and direct my Executors hereinafter named to sell all my personal Estate of every description or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of my just debts, duly authenticated, retaining such stock and household property as she may deem necessary to carry on the farm as hereinafter directed.

I further direct my Executors to collect all bonds and accounts which may be due and owing to me at the time of my death which together with any surplus that may remain in his hands arising from the sale of my personal Estate, to constitute a fund which I direct my Executors to loan out at interest well secured by bonds or otherwise until my youngest daughter arrives at the age of Twenty one years, at which time the same shall be collected by my Executors and equally divided between my Children, to-wit: Mary, Elizabeth, Thomas, Peter, John, James, William, and Isaac, the children of my last wife, or to the survivor of them.

In the second place I will and direct to my wife Eliza P. all my real estate of every description during her natural life and take the rents and of profits thereof to her own use, and benefit. But in case my said wife should again marry then and in that event she shall forfeit all the provisions herein made for her, in this clause of my will. And all the right title and interest in my lands herein devised to her shall pass at once to my eleven children, named in this my last Will & Testament, or to their survivors.

And further I will and direct my Executors, as soon as the money can be collected to pay over to my four Children, to-wit: Mary E. Martha J., Robert B. and Virginia, Children of my dear & first wife, Two Hundred and Eighty Dollars, being the amount received by me from Shilow, Administrator of Robert Barnes dec'd of Tennessee.

Having heretofore given to my said son Robert one fine horse, to Mary E. her schooling, to Martha one ^{fine} Dressing Saddle and her schooling, and to Virginia ^{fine} ^{and} ^{one} ^{hundred} ^{and} ^{fifty} ^{cents} and her schooling.

It is further my will and desire that my children to her, as long as she may choose so to do, as one of the family.

And lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Eliza P. Executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 25th day of October 1873.

James ^{his} Robinson ^{Teste}

Signed sealed and acknowledged by the said James Robinson in his presence and for his last will and Testament.
