

I do hereby certify that I have no objection to the foregoing property of the above named decedent, and that the foregoing is a correct list of the property, with such the house in which it will be annexed 10th, December 1884.

No. 1. Russell &
 Andrew (Ransom) administrator of the estate of

Alleghany County Court, Alleghany, Pa. 1884
 The above will is the personal estate of the decedent and was this day shown to the Court & the same is returned to the Court as true.

In the name of God Amen. I, J. F. Jackson of the Mill County of Alleghany and State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory, knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death in preparation of that event, do declare and make this my last will and testament. First I will my soul to God to be disposed of in the following manner. I will all my personal property of every kind, I give to my wife Rachel Jackson I also will to my wife Rachel all my interest in the lands of my father, John Jackson deceased, which I am to receive at the death of my Mother by Virtue of her will, and also the share in the same, which I purchase from Harriet to God &c.
 I also appoint my wife Rachel Jackson as my Executor.
 In Witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 29th day of October 1884.

Alleghany County Court April Term 1885 An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will & testament of J. F. Jackson, was returned to Court for probate and was proved by the oath of Martin & Corby and Samuel H. Jackson two of the subserving witnesses thereto, and the same is ordered to be recorded. Therefore Rachel Jackson the Executrix therein named, made oath therein and returned into bond with Crawford Jackson & Charles H. H. H. her securities in the sum of $1000. Consideration according to law. Therefore letters testamentary is granted her in due form of law.
