I, Anthony Mannan, of the County of Alleghany and State of Virginia, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following: 1st I desire that all my just debts shall be paid. 2^d I give to my grandson, John R. Mannan, one set of blacksmith tools, two rifle guns, one mare, named Lucy, one feather bed, bedstead and bedding, one milk cow and one heifer. 3^d I also give to my said grandson my farm on Jacksons River, known as the River Farm, and require that he pay to his sister, Isabella, Three Hundred Dollars, and give her a good and comfortable support during the time she remains single. He is to have six years in which to pay said sum of Three Hundred Dollars, after my death. 4th I give to my grand daughter, Salina Evans, one cow, one heifer, one feather bed, bedstead and bedding. Complete. 5th I desire my grandson, John R. Mannan, and my daughter, Rezia L. Evans, to have the use of the farm on which I now reside, with the horses, wagons and farming implements thereof, for the term of years to be under her entire control tion of said three years. I desire that my said daughter, Rezia, should she be living, have the use of said farm, with the horses, wagons and farming implement thereon, during her life time. 7th After the death of said daughter, Rezia, I desire that said farm be rented out and the proceeds therefrom go to my daughter, Maria Green, should she be living, during her lifetime. And all my personal property not heretofore disposed of, I desire shall be sold and the proceeds divided equally between all my nearest grand children. 8th I desire that after the death of my said daughter, Maria Green, said farm shall be sold and the proceeds equally divided between my nearest grand children. 9th I desire that no timber shall be sold off or cut on the farm, except what may be necessary to keep the farm in good repair, during the lifetime of my daughter, Rezia's Maria. 10th I desire that my grand son, John R. Mannan, shall be the Executor of this my last Will and Testament. Nothing more to be made. Given under my hand and seal this 1st day of December 1874.

I, John H. Hanstarger of the County of Monroe State of West Virginia, being free in health and sound in mind, do make this my last Will, as follows: I desire my funeral expenses and just debts to be paid first, and then the following disposition made of the remainder of my property. I bequeath to my wife and her children the farm on which we now live, known as the High Hill Farm, and the said farm is to be under her entire control during her natural life time or as long as she remains a widow, and if she marries again it then falls back to her children. It is also my desire that her estate shall have my interest in the John Tiffany Farm. I also bequeath to my wife and children one undivided third of the Caperton Farm - the other two thirds of said farm I have given to my sons R. H. & J. E. Haustarger by deed. I also bequeath to my two sons R. H. & J. E. Haustarger two Hundred Dollars to each one and one horse to each one. All the balance of my personal property I bequeath to my wife and her children, after said property is sold the proceeds of said property to be used for their benefit as they may need it for education &c. I hereby appoint John J. Hodge & Samuel H. Symms my Executors to execute all the funds arising from the sale of my personal property and apply them to the use of my wife and her children as they may severally need it. It is my desire that they be well educated. As witness my hand this 14th day of December 1874.

Court

James Campbell Clerk
County Court Monroe Co.

Virginia. Alleghany County Court March Term 1875.
A certified Copy of the last Will and Testament of John N. Haustarger died, and of the order admitting the same to probate in the Clerk's Office of the County Court of Monroe County West Virginia, were this day presented to Court, and no evidence being offered to the contrary, the Court doth presume as required by law, that the said Will was duly executed and admitted to record as a Will of personalty in the State aforesaid (being the State of the Testator named), and doth order that the said copy be admitted to probate as a Will of personalty in this State. And therefore John J. Hodge, one of the Executors named in said Will together with J. T. Judge his surety, who made oath as to his sufficiency, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Two Thousand Dollars payable to the Commonwealth, conditioned according to law, and waiving the Homestead Exemption, which bond is ordered to be recorded. And the said John J. Hodge having taken the oath prescribed by law, is granted Letters Testamentary upon the said Estate in due form. And leave is granted to the other Executor named in said Will to qualify at a subsequent term.
