

Alleghany County Court, June Term 1875.
A paper purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Elizabeth Seely died was this day produced to Court and proved by the oaths of C. J. Rogers and Samuel Carpenter, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and the same is, therefore, ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said Elizabeth Seely died.

A Copy, etc.

J. D. Noels, D.C.

In the name of God, Amen. I, David Neplew of Alleghany County, of Alleghany and State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this to be my last Will and Testament, as follows, to-wit: I desire for my body a decent and Christian burial. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Roshaba for her own absolute use forever all my personal property or estate whatever, consisting of all my household and kitchen furniture, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, and farming utensils, and any other and all personal property that I may have at my death. And I do hereby nominate and appoint John A. Carson of the County and State before mentioned, to be Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I the said Testator, David Neplew, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this Twenty seventh day of February in the year One thousand Eight Hundred and seventy five.

David Neplew Seal

Signed, read, published and declared by the Testator David Neplew, as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who in his presence and at his request in the presence of each other, subscribed our names as witnesses.
