

Alleghany County Court March Term 1874.

The last Will and Testament of Crofford Jackson was this day further proved by the oath of Stephen Perkins, the other subscribing witnesses thereto, and the same is ordered to be recorded. And it appearing to the Court that both the Executors named in the will and the wife of the said Crofford Jackson are dead, on the motion of Wm M. McAllister who made oath as the law directs, he is granted Letters of Administration, with the said Will annexed, upon the Estate of the said Crofford Jackson dead in due form. And thereupon the said Wm M. McAllister, with A. A. McAllister, his security (who made oath as to his sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $2500.00, payable to the Commonwealth and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his Office as Administrator as aforesaid.

W. Kames of the County of Alleghany and State of Virginia, being of sound mind & disposing memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all other Wills heretofore made by me. It is my Will and desire that my nephew Frank L. Kames here and I hereof will and bequeath to the said Frank L. Kames all of my property both real and personal, of every description whatever, including all bonds and accounts due me individually or jointly with my brother Michael Kames and any other interest that I may have in any bonds, accounts or claims of every description whatever. This Estate real and personal disposed of by this instrument is chiefly held and owned jointly with my brother Michael Kames, but it is my Will and desire that my nephew aforesaid, whom I hereby constitute my sole legatee, shall, at my death, have and own all of my Estate, real and personal including all that I hold and have individually and jointly with any other person whatsoever. In testimony whereof I sign my name and affix my seal this 25th day of February 1874.

W. Kames

Signed, sealed, acknowledged and delivered in our presence at the day and year indicated. In testimony whereof we sign our names as witnesses, at the request of the testator in his presence and in the presence of each other.
