Land Lying in Amherst County, on the North side of Buffaloe River, Containing Eleven hundred and Seventy Acres, of which four hundred Acres of which belong to George Penn on that part wherein he has seated a plantation: the remaining Seven hundred and Seventy Acres joining of another tract on the said side of Buffaloe River Containing Two hundred Acres, The two Tracts then containing Nine hundred and seventy Acres, to be divided by William Cabell Junr. & George Penn, in maner following: three hundred & seventy Acres to be laid off in a lot joining to George Penn Line; and the new line which joins the Great line, and two hundred Acres at the place whereon is a new Cleared piece of Ground without any building, and two hundred Acres at the place known by the Name of the Poplar Thicket, and the remaining two hundred whereon is a plantation with a Dwelling house a Building, It is my will and desire as soon as the said Land can conveniently be divided by the s^d William Cabell Jun^r and George Penn, That they return to the County Court, a plot of the said L^os, in order to be recorded, to Prevent a Futur Division of the said Land, I give to my Loving Wife one Ne-grow Woman Names Phillace, and one Negrow Girl Named Delpha, one Choice Riding Horse and side saddle, and two hundred Acres Land whereon I have a plantation and an Intended Dwelling house built -ding, only that She is to possess the Land no longer than Enduring her widowhood, and in Case of her marrying again, or Death, then the said Land falls to my Son Frank, I give to my Son George Two hundred Acres of Land on the place whereon is a new Cleared piece of Ground without other Improve-ments, Being part of the above mentioned Tract of nine hundred and Seventy Acres of Land, and one Choice Negrow, I give to my Son Richard two hundred Acres of Land part of the above mentioned Tract of Nine hundred and Seventy Acres of Land known by the Name of the Poplar Thicket and one Choice Negrow, I give to my Son Frank Two hundred Acres of Land, part of the above mentioned Tract of Nine hun-dred and Seventy Acres, which is the Plantation where-

 -on I have an Intended Dwelling house a Building, only
