In the Name of God Amen. I William Johnson of Amherst County being in helth and perfect Memory do make this my last Will and Testament in the first place I leave my Soul to Almighty God who gave it, and my Body to be buried in such Decency as my Executors hereafter shall think proper shortly after Discharging my worldly Debts I leave my Loving Mother Ann Johnson my Negro fellow Comer During her widowhood and at her Decease or Marriage, the said Negro to be Sold, and Equally Divided between my Brothers, William and Phillip Johnson, and Mary and Frances Johnson my Sisters and Mary Maffitt Daughter of Thomas Maffitt.
 Item I give my Brother Phillip my horse and Saddle, also my Land and Plantation whereon I live, also the remainder of
