In the name of God amen.

I James B. Phillips of the County of Alexandria and the State of Virginia being of sound and disposing memory but feeble in body do make declare, and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all former wills by me made.

Item: I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary C. Phillips my property real, personal and mixed during her life subject however to the provisions hereinafter mentioned in this will.

Item: I give devise and bequeath to my children herein named the following amounts as a charge against my estate on account of money advanced and labor performed and materials furnished in building and improving the homestead farm the hereinafter mentioned amounts are not to bear interest however.

To my Sons James William Phillips	$579.23
Samuel Dorsey Phillips	12070.00
Stephen Cour Phillips	1966.00
Charles Wesley Phillips	94.50
and to my Daughter Lavinia Annette Phillips	500.00
	$9009.73

I further will and desire that my farm with all the improvements stocks & cetera thereon which is situated in Alexandria County and State of Virginia and called Bloomingdale containing about 58 acres of land more or less and improved by a fine large frame dwelling house containing twenty rooms, Barn and all the necessary outbuilding for farming purposes shall be held as a homestead for my children where they can all gather as in my lifetime and have a home.

I further desire and will that the farm shall be taken care of and worked by my sons James W., Samuel D. and Stephen C. Phillips and the profits thereof to be applied to the culture and improvement thereof; And that they shall keep just and true accounts in book form of the expenditures outlays, profits &c. of the same and if in their judgment there is a greater profit arising therefrom during each or any year than is necessary to keep the farm in good culture and high state of improvement then the balance to be divided between all my children share and share alike.

It is my will and desire further that my daughter Lavinia Annette shall have the privilege of taking board at the home stead during the four months of the year from June 1st to the 1st October in each year and apply the proceeds arising therefrom to her own individual use.

It is also my desire that the property aforesaid mentioned shall not be for the period of ten years after this instrument shall take effect unless the farm should in the meantime be able to realize from a sale at least the sum of thirteen thousand four hundred and nine ($13,409.73) dollars and seventy eight cents which will be a sufficient sum to pay all the charges on account of advances to me as above.

leave a balance of Forty five hundred ($4500 =) dollars: or unless all the Children then surviving should agree to a sale.

The residue of my estate real personal and mixed I give devise and bequeath to all my Children share and share alike.

I hereby nominate and appoint as my executors my sons James W. Samuel H. and Stephen C. Phillips and request that they may be allowed to act as such without bond as surety.

Given under my hand and seal this seventeenth day of December A.D. 1876

Ja. B. Phillips
