Commissioners Office
 Alexandria Virginia
 January 28, 1870.
 To the County Court of Alexandria County:
 Your Commissioner Reports to the Court
 That on the 3^d day of January 1870 Robert L. Wood the administrator of John Wood deceased, exhibited before your Commissioner a statement of all the money which he the said Administrator had received, or become chargeable with, or had disbursed since his qualification, as administrator of the said estate, on the 3^d day of September 1868. That the commissioner embraced the said Administrator on the list of fiduciaries, whose accounts were before him for settlement, which was posted at the front door of the Courthouse of said County, on the first day of January 1869, and on the date of this Report (ten days having elapsed since the said account was mentioned in the said list) made up and completed an account of the said Robert L. Word, administrator, as aforesaid, and on the 2^d day of September 1869, finds a balance of $45.70 due from the said estate, to the said administrator, all principal. The vouchers of the said administrator having been mislaid, during the late war, the disbursements of said account have been sustained by the oath of the said administrator. The account is herewith returned. Your commissioner further reports to the Court that he has examined, whether the said administrator has given such bond as the law requires, and whether it is in a fully and with securities sufficient, and finds the same to be unobjectionable, and fully sufficient.

I give under my hand, as commissioner of the said Court, on the day and year first aforesaid.

John West
Commissioner

Since employed by the Commissioner in stating, settling and reporting the account herewith returned, with copies of the same, 9 hours, 15 minutes, $9. The Commissioner fees paid by Robert L. Word, administrator as aforesaid.

John West
Commissioner

Virginia,

Alexandria County Court, February 7th 1870.

The foregoing Account and Report were returned to Court and ordered to lie on the bench for exceptions, and on another day to wit: At a County Court held for said County, on the 11th day of March 1870, the same were confirmed and ordered to be recorded.

Teste:

Jefferson McK.

Alexandria Va. Decr 25th 1868.

In the name of God, amen:

I George H. Smart of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills, heretofore at any time made by me.

After payment of my funeral expenses & my just debts I give and bequeath as follows: I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary Eliza French, what ever sum or sums of money I may have at any time advanced to her or her husband David M. French, together with two dwelling houses & lot of ground No. 104 West side of Washington street between King and Cameron streets. One vacant lot of ground east side of Columbus street between King and Cameron streets and one dwelling house & lot of ground South side of King No. 248 between Alfred and Patrick streets. I give and bequeath unto my grand daughter Kate W. French one dwelling and store house and lot of ground north side of King street No. 177 between Washington & Columbus streets possession of which is to be given to her at the date of my decease. I give and bequeath unto my grand son George S. French a ground rent of $100 per year on a lot of ground on the south side of King street between Union and Wake streets possession of which is to be given to him at the date of my decease. I give and bequeath unto my son Josiah H. D. Smart whatever sum or sums of money I may have at any time or times advanced to him, together with one dwelling house and lot of ground, No. 44 on the north side of Prince St. between St. Ann and Washington streets, one dwelling house & lot of ground No. 38 north side of Cameron street between Wake & Fairfax streets, together with the vacant lot of ground adjoining the house (No. 35) lot to the East and also the lot of ground to the west of the same, one dwelling house and lot of ground No. 104 South side of Duke street between Pitt & St. Ann streets. I give and bequeath unto my son Josiah H. D. Smart in trust for the separate use and benefit of his children by his wife Fanny P. with proceeds of debt due to me by the late firm of King D. French & Sons, as evidenced by their negotiable note, a like bill, proceeds of debt due to me by Mrs. A. D. French, as is evidenced by her several notes or bonds. The collection of which debts I require upon him to make and to divide with proceeds equally between his said children and share & share alike and pay to each his or her share as they respectively become of age. I give and bequeath unto my son Alleghany Smart what ever sum or sums of money I may have at any time or times advanced to him, together with one dwelling house & lot of ground No. 24 north side of King street between Alfred & Patrick streets. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Kate H. Taylor what ever sum or sums of money I may have at any time or times advanced to her or to her husband Monie Taylor, together with three dwelling houses and lot of ground No. 25 No. 24 & No. 26 east side of Fairfax street, between King and Prince streets, one vacant lot of ground 54 feet front on west side of Fairfax St. running west an even width to Regal street, between Prince & Prince streets and also all of my house hold and kitchen furniture of every description that may be in my dwelling house at my decease, without inventory or appraisement. I give and bequeath all the real and remaining of my Estate, Real, Personal and Mixed unto my four children Mary Eliza French wife of David M. French, Josiah H. D. Smart, Alleghany Smart and Kate H. Taylor wife of Monie Taylor to be equally divided between them, share and share alike. The property now or heretofore given, devised and bequeathed to my said (children) daughter is for their sole and separate use, respectively free from the debts, liabilities and controls of their respective husbands, with power to each of my said daughters to dispose of the whole or any part thereof respectively by deed or by will.
