2^d: I give my warehouse property on King and West St. to my son James, but my son Samuel may, if he chooses, have a term, not exceeding ten years therein, he paying James about three of One hundred dollars per annum, half yearly, with all taxes assessed upon the said property, also keeping in good repair, and keeping the buildings insured for not less than Twenty Five Hundred dollars during his term, the insurance money, in case of loss to be applied to the rebuilding and repairing of the destroyed building, under James direction.
