Commissioners Office
 Alexandria, Virginia
 January 21, 1868.

John West, Commissioner

Commissioners Office
 Alexandria, Virginia.

January 21, 1868.

To the County Court of Alexandria County.

Your Commissioners reports to the Court, that on the third day of January 1868, Cassius F. See the guardian of Louis A. Bezenov, exhibited before your Commissioners a statement of all the money which he the said guardian had received or become chargeable with, or had disbursed within the year ending on the first day of January 1868. Together with the vouchers for such disbursements, that the Commissioners embraced the said guardian in the list of fiduciaries whose accounts were before him for settlement, which was fixed at the front door of the Court house of said County, on the first day of January Court 1868, and on the date of this report (Ten days having elapsed since the said account was mentioned in said list) made up and completed the account herewith returned of the said Cassius F. See's guardianship, as aforesaid; and on the first day of January 1868, finds a balance of Municipal of $334 62 due from the said guardian, to Louis A. Bezenov, his said ward. The account is supported by satisfactory vouchers. Your Commissioners further reports to the Court, that he has examined whether the said guardian has given such bond as the law requires, and whether it is in a penalty and with securities sufficient, and finds the same to be unobjectionable and fully sufficient.

Given under my hand, as Commissioner of the said Court, on the day and year first aforesaid.

Commissioner's fee in this case
 $10 00, chd. to C. F. See guardian.

John West, Commissioner.

dat 27 Jan 1868. J. W.
 Same.

Virginia
 Alexandria County Court, Clerk's Office, February 5th 1868

The foregoing accounts and report were this day returned to Court and ordered to lie on the table for exceptions. And on another day, to wit at a Court held for said County, on the 6th day of April 1868, the same were confirmed and ordered to be recorded.

Witness

J. Jacey,
 Clerk.

Myself before Will.

J. Margaret Ballendar, bequeath to my sister Mary Ann - White one House and lot on the North side of Prince street between Water and Union, East of Water street and West of Union, and also all my personal property, this third of March in the year of our Lord 1861. This is my last Will and Testament.

Margaret Callender.

Virginia

Alexandria County Court, April 2<sup>d</sup> 1868.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Margaret Callender, deceased, was produced in open Court by S. D. Watters, and three benign subscribing witnesses, Hugh Latham, and William J. Hall were sworn, and severally deposed, that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the Testator, and verily believe the said writing and the names thereto subscribed, to be of the Testator's proper handwriting. Whereupon, the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the True last Will and Testament of the said Margaret Callender, deceased.

Teste:

J. J. Jacy.

clerk,

Eliza Ramsey
wid.

I, Eliza Ramsey, widow of the late Robert J. Ramsey of the City of Alexandria in the State of Virginia, do hereby make, publish and declare, this my last Will and Testament, hereby annulling and revoking all other wills by me, at any time heretofore made.

I give and bequeath to P. S. Blacklock, of the City of Alexandria, in Trust, for his wife Julia S. Blacklock, and their children, for their sole and separate use free from the debts, contracts, and all other liabilities, of the said P. S. Blacklock, the three bonds of D. R. Blacklock, and the said P. S. Blacklock, for the sum of $953.00 each, bearing date on the 26th day of January 1853, payable respectively, at one, two & three years after date, to Reuben Johnston my trustee, under a Deed of Alexandria County, in Liber S. No. 3, p. 308, with interest from date; subject nevertheless, to the payment of certain debts, due from my late husband the said Robert J. Ramsey to Eliza Snowden the late Benjamin J. Ferrell, and the late Francis A. Marbury, of Alexandria; the said three bonds hereto bequeathed, are secured by a Deed of Trust from the said P. S. & D. R. Blacklock to Wm. H. Marbury bearing date August 4th 1853, and duly recorded amongst the Land Records of Alexandria County, in Liber P. No. 3, page 522.

Second. By virtue of, and in exercise of the power of appointment, in me vested by the aforesaid Deed, of June 16th 1846, from Robert J. Ramsey, to Reuben Johnston, I do hereby give, devise, and bequeath the lot of ground & appurtenances, therein described, so situated, on the West side of Union street, and South side of Crooked street, in the City of Alexandria, to my son Francis J. Marbury, of the City of New York, his heirs assigns forever.

Third. All the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal of whatsoever kind, and wheresoever situated, I also give devise and bequeath, to my said son the said Francis J. Marbury, his heirs assigns forever.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint William H. Marbury, the Executor, of this my last Will and Testament, and declare that no security be required of him in that capacity.

In Witness, whereof, I have hereunto set my hand & seal, this 18th day of January, Anno Domini 1868.

Eliza Ramsey

Acknowledged by the Testator in our presence (present at the same time) who in her presence have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses.

John R. Master
S. M. Dent.

Executed to my Will.

The Bonds of D. R. Blacklock and P. S. Blacklock for $953.00 each, bequeathed to P. S. Blacklock by me in my Will of this date, annulled hereto, are subject to the payment of a debt, due from my late husband Robt. J. Ramsey, and a debt due from me to Doct. Francis J. Marbury, in addition to the debts named in my aforesaid Will, to the payment of which said bonds are subject.

Alexandria Jan'y 18th 1868.

Eliza Ramsey.

Acknowledged by the Testator in our presence (present at the same time) who in her presence, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses, the words "and a debt due from me" interlined before signing.
