1875 Sept. 27th Approved and Ordered to be recorded,
Louis E. Payne, Clerk.

Wesley C. Carlin of the County of Alexandria, State of Virginia being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make and ordain this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me at any time heretofore made. First I give, devise, and bequeath unto my friend George R. Adams of Alexandria County Virginia the following described property to wit: the sum of Four hundred dollars ($400.00) which the said Adams owes to me and upon which the interest is payable monthly and to secure the payment whereof, I hold the note of the said Adams for $1000.00 dated September 5th 1874 payable three years after date and secured by a deed of trust on real estate in the City of Washington D. C. as collateral security; Also the sum of money due to me by Mrs. Martha Whitham of the City of Alexandria, Virginia the same being between two and three hundred dollars for money lent to her by me; Also all my household and kitchen furniture and property of every kind and character with the exception of one share of stock of the D. C. & N. R. Co. and my writing desk; the said property to be held by the said George R. Adams in trust for the use and benefit maintenance and support of my daughter Mary A. Carlin for and during her life the said money to be kept properly invested and the same whether principal or interest to be paid to my said daughter Mary A. Carlin at such time or times and in such manner or sums as she may require and direct my object being to make provision for the support, maintenance and comfort of my said daughter. And I do hereby authorize and empower the said George R. Adams to make sale and dispose of the said household and kitchen furniture or any part thereof whenever he may be required to do so by my said daughter Mary A. Carlin.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath unto my grandson Clinton Bennett my writing desk and one share of stock in the Ala. & Lou. R. R. Co.

Third: If any portion of the property devised and bequeathed by the item or section of this my last will and testament shall remain undivided at the death of my said daughter Mary A. Carlin I do hereby direct that the same shall be equally divided amongst my four grand children viz: Clinton Bennett, Britannia Poner, Laura Allen & Dallas Bennett the interest of the said Britannia and Laura to be for their sole and separate use, free from the debts, liabilities or control of their husbands. Fourth: I hereby direct that the said note of George R. Adams for $1000.00 shall be held by my said daughter Mary A. Carlin as security for the faithful discharge of his duties as trustee under this my last will and testament, with the right to the said Adams to withdraw the said note upon substituting such other security therefor as my said daughter shall require or the County Court of Alexandria County Va shall direct. Fifth: I do hereby constitute the said George R. Adams and Mary A. Carlin Executor and Executrix of this my last will and testament and do direct that no security shall be required of them or either of them in their executorial bond.

In Witness whereof I have here to set my hand and affixed my seal this 29th day of April A.D. 1875

Wesley Carlin

Signed, Sealed, acknowledged and declared by the testator Wesley Carlin as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses
